

THELMA GOATES WEBB

Lehi Centennial History 1850-1950

Thelma Goates Webb, daughter of John Goates and Winifred Glover, was born April 4, 1909, in Lehi, Utah, and has been a life long member of the Lehi First Ward.

She was employed by the Utah Poultry Producers Co-op Ass'n. for ten years, as office clerk and cashier.

She started her activity in the Church at the age of sixteen by teaching kindergarten in Sunday School, in which capacity she served for eight years. She later taught several classes at various intervals.

She served fifteen years in the ward and stake Young Women's Mutual Improvement Association.

In the ward Young Women's Mutual Improvement Association, she served as organist, member of the community activity committee, Bee Keeper, and first counselor.

In the stake she served as secretary, Gleaner leader, second counselor and president and has served as first assistant on the Stake LDS Girls committee.

She was a member of the Stake choir for two years and is now a member of the First Ward Choir.

She served as organist and is now teaching the Bluebird group in Primary.

She has served as a Relief Society visiting teacher and is now Theology class leader.

She is a member of the Auctus Club and is now serving as a delegate to the Utah County Women's.

She was married to Royal Ward Webb, September 10, 1930, in the Salt Lake Temple. From this union two children were born, namely, Donna and Kenneth.
